Sub: Proposal for Sponsorship from TIG for Hult Prize National Finals

Through: E-Cell advisor

Dear Sir,

Greetings on behalf of the NSEC E-Cell. After the successful completion of the Hult Prize on Campus event and the Regionals Finals. it is now time to take it to the next step. The winners of this year Hult prize on campus event Team HR-03 were called forth to showcase their idea at the Hult Prize National finals to be hosted at IIT Delhi in 7th and 8th April 2018. So, to make their dream successful and to ensure that they go one more step closer to winning the 1 million USD funding at the Hult Prize Grand Finals at the United Nations headquarters in New York City. and thus showcase NSEC as one of the premier institutions from India supporting and spearheading the movement of Social entrepreneurs, we as hosts, the NSEC E-Cell is looking forward for sponsorship for this event from our institution.

To cover

- Travel and accommodation for the three days trip to the national finals

Some key points of the Hult Prize 2017-2018

- One of the biggest platforms leading to Social Entrepreneurship
- Providing a chance for global leaders to showcase their idea at a global level
- Thus, combating the major issues of today's world and even leading to sustainable business around the globe
- It is a platform led by former US president Bill Clinton in association with the United Nations

Team HR-03 did really well in the National Finals. Their idea got a really great response and appreciation from the Hult Prize judges and committee. Their idea even got LIVE on facebook by the Hult Prize Indian National Finals official facebook profile. So, both Team HR-03 and Netaji Subhash Engineering College got a national and global exposure and appreciation by national and international committee of Hult Prize 2017-2018.

Thus Team HR-03 asks for the reimbursement of the whole Delhi trip.
