7. RAGGING

Ragging within or outside the educational institution is prohibited. Ragging is an offence under Indian Penal Code. Whoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or instigates ragging inside or outside the educational institution shall be punished. Any authority of the college can also suo moto recommend action against any student/students indulging in ragging to the Principal.

A. Definition

The word 'ragging' means the acts "causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his person or exposes him to ridicule or forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining, or injuring him or by using criminal force to him or by holding out to him any threat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force." The term 'ragging' may include; display of noisy, disorderly conduct, teasing, excitement by rough or rude treatment or handling, indulging in rowdy, undisciplined activities which cause or likely to cause annoyance, undue hardship, physical or psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear in a fresher, or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such a student will not do in the ordinary course and which causes him/her shame or embarrassment or danger to his/her life.

B. Forms of ragging:

Ragging is found to take the following forms (the list is only indicative and not exhaustive) Crisp orders : to address seniors as 'Sir', to perform mass drills, to copy class notes for the seniors; to serve various errands, to do menial jobs for the seniors; to ask/answer vulgar questions, to look at pornographic pictures to 'shock the freshers out of their innocence'; to force to drink alcohol, scalding tea, etc., to force to do acts with sexual overtones, including homosexual acts; to force to do acts which can lead to physical injury/mental torture or death, to strip, kiss, etc.; to do other obscenities it can be seen from the above that most of them, except the first few, constitute perverse forms of ragging.

C. Punishments

The following could be the possible punishments for those who are found guilty of participation in or abetment of ragging. The quantum of punishment shall, naturally, depend upon the nature and gravity of the offence as established by the Disciplinary Committee or the court of law. In the case of any ragging reported, the burden of proof lie on the perpetrator and not on the victim to prove that ragging did not take place. In the cases where the perpetrators could not be identified, collective punishment will be awarded.

While the first 8 types of punishment can be awarded by the appropriate authority of the college itself, the last punishment can be awarded only by a court of law.

Any incident of ragging reported to taken place outside the college campus, without any enquiry, the complaint shall be forwarded to the police.

- i. Cancellation of admission.
- ii. Suspension from attending classes.
- iii. Withholding/withdrawing scholarship/fellowship and other benefits.
